Appellants are of one family. Parties agreed before us that these cases were identical to Appeal No. CIC/WB/A/2006/00270, Surya Prakash vs. L&D Office, DDA and that the decision in that appeal was acceptable in all the present three. During the last hearing it was clarified by Appellate Authority Shri Nakh that it is now recognized that as per rulings of the Central Commission file noting unless they are in contravention of Sections 8 and 24 of the Act are disclosable information. He, therefore, agreed that the information sought would be provided. In response to a question from Shri Nakh we had also clarified that, being part of the record as defined u/s 2(i)(a), even copies of unsigned documents can be provided certifying that they are in fact unsigned documents.
